Description of your organization and program activities:

Embracing a reverence for life, Bristol Hospice provides care for patients toward the end of their life journey. We are growing and need volunteers with a big heart in Calaveras County. Our volunteers receive training and work with a professional team that specializes in end-of-life care.

Description of volunteer position(s) available:

Volunteers read, watch movies, create memory projects and listen to music with patients. They also record life stories and provide respite for caregivers. Volunteer schedules are flexible to meet your needs. If you're able to commit three hours a week and you're interested in providing companionship to a patient or respite for their caregivers, give us a call.
